

LFTI Fundraising Ideas

Here's a list of creative fundraising ideas to rescue, restore, and renew children affected by human trafficking.

- Donate your birthday: ask for donations to LFTI instead of gifts
- Donate your wedding: ask for donations to LFTI instead of wedding gifts
- Run a race, marathon, or walk-a-thon and ask your community to sponsor X amount of miles or laps
- Host a dessert night at your home or church
- Host a meal or pancake breakfast with a suggested donation
- Skip a Meal - invite friends to join you in giving up a meal and donate the money saved to LFTI
- Skip the Coffee - invite friends to join you in skipping going out for coffee for a month and donate the saved money to LFTI
- Ask a business to start a "round up" program and donate through your campaign

Seasonal/holidays:

- Campfire and s'mores night in summer
- Dogwash (could be a summer event like a festival, end of summer dog pool party, etc.)
- Photographer for mini family photo shoots in the fall
- Flower bulb sale in the fall
- Make pies to sell for $20 each around holiday time
- Wrap Christmas presents and offer child care for donations or sell homemade ornaments
- Soup for Souper Bowl Sunday

A little more time and thought:

- 50/50 Raffle - Sell raffle tickets and offer half of the proceeds as prizes
- Reverse Raffle - All potential sponsors get a raffle ticket and sell it back for $10 to avoid getting their name drawn to do something embarrassing
- Iron Chef Competition - Choose one unique ingredient that must be featured/used in each dish prepared. Give a specified time limit for each chef or team to prepare their meal.
- Family Olympics - Hold an Olympics tournament with fun activities for families to compete in
- Swimathon (or something-athon)
- Flamingo Flocking Fundraiser - Check out flamingofundraising.com for more information
